The J. Marion Sims Foundation is pleased to welcome a new trustee to its board. Jodie C. Plyler has been elected to a three-year term and will begin her service on January 1, 2015.

Mrs. Plyler is Vice President and City Executive for First Palmetto Bank in Lancaster. A Lancaster County native, she is a graduate of the University of South Carolina Honors College. She has served as Chairman of the Lancaster County Chamber of Commerce and as President of the Lancaster Rotary Club, and completed the Chamber's Leadership Lancaster program. Mrs. Plyler currently serves on the board of directors for the Lancaster County Community Foundation. She previously served on the board of directors for Lancaster County Partners for Youth, Junior Achievement, and the Learning Institute for Tomorrow.

In joining the board, Mrs. Plyler succeeds Stanley D. Johnson, who will retire from the board at the end of 2014.

The J. Marion Sims Foundation's mission is to support programs and projects of prevention and education that enhance the health and wellness of the citizens of Lancaster County and the communities of Great Falls and Fort Lawn.
