

CONTACT:

Susan DeVenny
President & CEO
J. Marion Sims Foundation
(803) 286-8772

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

April 6, 2016

J.MARION SIMS FOUNDATION AWARDS $503,454 TO THE COMMUNITY

The J. Marion Sims Foundation announces community awards totaling $503,454 to 12 different organizations. “We are proud to support the nonprofit community in Lancaster, Great Falls, and Fort Lawn,” says President Susan DeVenny. “These awards support health, education, and wellness projects and services designed to build and sustain a high quality of life in the Foundation giving area.”

The Foundation recently made grants to the following community organizations:

- Alston Wilkes Society, $10,000
- Catawba Riverkeeper Foundation, $11,750
- Children’s Attention Home, $18,750
- Columbus Parker Track Club, $20,000
- Educational Foundation of USC-Lancaster, $45,000
- Good Samaritan Medical Clinic, $29,770
- HOPE in Lancaster, $30,000
- Horse N’ Around, $12,700
- KARE (Kershaw Area Resource Exchange), $173,551
- Keystone Substance Abuse Services, $50,000
- Lancaster County Council of the Arts, $70,333
- Women’s Enrichment Center, $31,600

The J. Marion Sims Foundation is celebrating its 20th year of grantmaking intended to support and transform the health and wellness of Lancaster, Great Falls, and Fort Lawn, SC. For information about our grants and other programs, please see www.jmsims.org or contact the Foundation at (803) 286-8772.

###